

JAGANNATHAN SCHOLARSHIPS

CONTACT INFORMATION

Established by industrialist N.S. Jagannathan, the scholarships were first awarded for the 1996-97 academic year. The Jagannathan Scholarship program is administered by the North Carolina State Education Assistance authority. The award is available to graduating high school seniors who plan to enroll as college freshmen in a full-time degree program at one of the constituent institutions of The University of North Carolina.

Recipients are chosen by a central selection committee on the basis of academic achievement (as indicated by class rank, cumulative GPA, and SAT scores), leadership and financial need.
