

Millennium Teacher Scholarship Loan Program

Frequently Asked Questions

Q1. What is the MTSLP?

The MTSLP (Millennium Teacher Scholarship Loan Program) is a program administered by the North Carolina State Education Assistance Authority. The program is designed to provide funding to graduating high school seniors who will enroll full-time and pursue a degree in teacher education. Students must enroll in one of the following institutions: Elizabeth City State University, Fayetteville State University or Winston-Salem State University. This scholarship/loan program requires repayment through service or cash and the recipient must intend to teach in the North Carolina school systems. Please visit the MTSLP Program website for more program details.

Q2. What are the eligibility requirements for the Millennium Teacher Scholarship Loan Program (MTSLP)?

- Be a North Carolina resident currently enrolled as a high school senior
- Have financial need as determined by the "Free Application for Federal Student Aid" (FAFSA)
- Meet the academic merit requirements including a minimum SAT score of 900 and a minimum 2.5 weighted grade point average
- Be accepted for admission to one of the following postsecondary institutions in North Carolina: Elizabeth City State University, Fayetteville State University or Winston-Salem State University
- Not be in default nor owe a refund under any federal or state loan or grant programs

Q3. How do I apply to the program?

You must contact the School of Education and/or your Financial Aid Office to express interest in receiving funds through this program. Recipients are selected at the institutional level.

Q4. Is this MTSLP funding portable if I elect to enter another eligible school after one semester?

No. Each eligible school is given an allocation. You must check with NCSEAA and the institution to which you are transferring.

Q5. Is there a maximum award amount I can receive through MTSLP?

Students who are selected for the NC Millennium Teacher Scholarship will receive $6,500 per year for up to four years to be applied toward the cost of attendance. Up to 20 new recipients will be selected at each of the three participating campuses each year.

Q6. May a MTSLP recipient receive other scholarships, grants or loans when receiving MTSLP funds?

No, MTSLP recipients may not receive:

Prospective Teacher Scholarship Loan (PTSL), Physical Education Coaching (PEC), Future Teachers of North Carolina (FTNC) nor Health, Science and Mathematics Student Loan Program (HSM) within the same academic year.

Q7. If awarded, when will I receive the check?

Funds are electronically transmitted to the school financial aid office in which students are enrolled.
