NC Reach
Child Welfare Postsecondary Support Program (CWPS)
2023-2024

The Child Welfare Postsecondary Support Program, also known as NC Reach, was established by the 2007 North Carolina General Assembly to provide funding for college students who have either aged out of North Carolina public foster care or whose adoption from North Carolina public foster care was finalized on or after their twelfth birthday.

Eligibility Criteria

To be eligible to receive the NC Reach award, students listed on the roster must meet the following criteria:

- meets the Selective Service Requirement (or is exempt)
- is not in default, or does not owe a refund, under any federal or state loan or grant program
- be enrolled at least part-time – the required enrollment hours on the list are based on what the student reported, if the actual enrollment differs from than that on the list, please contact vmurphy@ncreach.org to determine if the student is still eligible for all or a portion of the funds

Award amounts vary. Benefits are determined in consideration of federal and state grants and scholarships, including the Pell Grant, the Education Training Voucher and state scholarships such as the North Carolina Education Lottery Scholarship which are applied first to the predetermined costs of attendance at the qualifying school. The NC Reach Scholarship will help pay the balance of the predetermined costs of attendance and is intended to replace student loans.

In an effort to assist students in budgeting their living expenses, NC Reach may send two disbursements for each student each semester; one close to the beginning of the semester and one at the midpoint of the semester. Please remember that the second disbursement is being delivered to cover living expenses and should be released to the student expediently. Your cooperation in this effort is greatly appreciated.

By locking this roster, you certify that all students identified as "eligible" on this roster are "eligible" for the identified SEAA program in accordance with any applicable statutes/rules and the funds will credited to the student's account.

Williams Scholarship (WS)
2023-2024

Eligibility Criteria

The John Sharpe Williams Certification Roster allows you to apply the scholarship award to a student's record and make appropriate revisions.

To be eligible to receive the Williams Scholarship, the student listed on the roster must meet the following criteria:

- Must be an undergraduate or graduate student of any academic class or major.
- Must be enrolled full-time at one of the University of North Carolina institutions.
- Must demonstrate financial need
- Must have earned a 2.0 or higher grade point average in high school or in the preceding semester of enrollment with the university.
- Must have not already received the Williams Scholarship for more than one-half the semesters required to complete the recipient's degree requirements (e.g., four semesters for a bachelor's, two semesters for a master's).

In cases where a descendent of Nicholas Glen Williams applies for the scholarship, the above criteria must be met, and priority is given to the selection of the descendent over any other candidate. The descendent must provide proof of kinship to Nicholas Glen Williams.

Absent a descendent recipient, preference shall be given first to graduates of Forsyth Country Day School or West Forsyth High School, which serve Lewisville, North Carolina and then to residents of Forsyth County, North Carolina. Absent a qualified recipient meeting the above preferred considerations, the financial aid administrator at the designated institution shall have sole discretion in the selection of the recipient consistent with the above eligibility criteria. The administrator may also select a recipient who is not a resident of North Carolina, assuming the school and county criteria do not yield candidates.

The scholarship is non-transferable and is not eligible for deferment.

The amount of the Williams Scholarship depends on the interest earnings of the original gift and any subsequent contributions. Once you have determined eligibility for a student, please lock the list and SEAA will make any necessary changes.
